

Fair Pay for Artists Policy

Tuar Ard Arts Centre

Moate Community Development Association CLG

Tuar Ard Arts Centre is committed to supporting the Arts Council's policy on fair and equitable remuneration and contracting of artists.

We recognise the value of artists and creative practitioners and aim to ensure that all artists engaged by the organisation are treated fairly, professionally and with respect.

In line with Arts Council best-practice principles, Tuar Ard Arts & Enterprise Centre will:

- Seek to ensure that artists are paid fairly for their time, expertise and contribution
- Be open and transparent in all communications and agreements with artists
- Ensure that engagements are clearly defined and, where appropriate, supported by written agreements or contracts
- Strive to apply appropriate rates and standards, taking into account available resources and funding
- Ensure clarity around fees, expenses and payment timelines
- Respect artists' rights, including copyright and ownership of their work

We are committed to continually improving how we support and remunerate artists in line with best practice.

This policy has been adopted by Moate Community Development Association CLG and is published in line with Arts Council requirements.

This policy will be reviewed annually or as required by Moate Community Development Association CLG.
